Written by: Jay Levine (Mental Case Music Limited/Sony/ATV/ Socan), Mark Mosca (BMI), & Joanna Mosca.

VERSE

Sixty hours every week
Reading words that might as well be greek
Taking orders from men in their suits
Shopping for the perfect high heel boots

PRE CHORUS

Then I saw him walk on by
Started thinking bout makin some time

CHORUS

I need a I need, I need a good distraction
Like to see a little action
You're startin up a chain reaction
You're lookin better than anyone should
Come on and show me what's under the hood

VERSE

They say I ain't got time for a man
They're more trouble than a snake in your hand
But I'm open to a good disaster
Guess I'll worry bout the hurtin after

PRE CHORUS

Now you're lookin back at me
And you know what's been on my mind

CHORUS

I need a, I need a, I need a good distraction
Like to see a little action
You're startin up a chain reaction
You're lookin better than anyone should
Come on show me what's under the hood
I need a good distraction
I need a good distraction

BRIDGE

I've been doin what a good girl should
But I want my cake right now
Tired of listenin to that copy machine
What I want to hear is WOW, WOW
