

LEARN TO SWIM

Written by: Troy Verges, Katrina Elam, & Blair Daly

So you feel like you're stuck somewhere between broken and hopeless
Sinking to the bottom of a big blue ocean
Seems like it'll be this way forever and ever

You think it's out of your control, don't give up don't give up, no

You can't stop an April sky from raining, from raining
Just watching the water rise won't change it, won't change it.
You can hold your breath and stay right there
In that place you're drowning in, or you can learn to swim, you can learn to swim

It ain't easy when you're feeling like you're tired of getting pulled down
It might be hard to see it from where you are right now
But believe me you're strong enough to get through this, through this Crazy storm hanging over your head don't give up, don't give up yet

You can't stop an April sky from raining, from raining
Just watching the water rise won't change it won't change it
You can hold your breath and stay right there
In that place you're drowning in, or you can learn to swim, you can learn to swim

You can't stop an April sky from raining, from raining
Just watching the water rise won't change it

You can't stop an April sky from raining from raining
Just watching the water rise won't change it won't change it
You can hold your breath and stay right there
In that place you're drowning in, or you can learn to swim
You can learn to swim learn to swim
